

Fabiolous Cooking Day

Fabiolous Cooking Day is an extraordinary culinary experience created by chef Fabio Bongiani.

Cooking classes, food tours, and private dining events are offered in seven unique locations in the centre of Rome and in the near countryside.

These exclusive gastronomic experiences combine insight and technique on cooking Italian food with Italian history and culture to offer those visiting Rome an unforgettable experience.

You can enjoy Italian cuisine like a true Roman: shop in colourful markets, taste typical street foods, and make pasta or pizza using traditional recipes. Or you can dine in our exclusive private apartments and have a personal chef designing the perfect menu per you.

Fabiolous Cooking Day communicates the heart of Italian cuisine by leading you on a true culinary journey through the real Rome. Our English-speaking chefs and tour leaders are professional, engaging, and authentic.

With Fabiolous guests, laugh, learn, cook, drink wine, and most importantly, EAT.
